Coughing injures and inflames sore lungs. One minute Cough Cure loosens the cold, allays coughing and heals quickly. The finest cough cure for children.—J. W. Houghton.

Mr. A. R. Warner, of Wellington, manager of the Interstate Telephone company, who has charge of the new telephone company here, informs us that he has secured 116 subscribers for phones. The gentleman says he is confident that 300 to 400 phones will be placed in Shelby by the new company. This would appear to be a reasonable calculation when the town of Wellington with one third the population of Shelby has 161 phones.—Shelby Republican.

G. H. Palmer moved into his new residence on Prospect street last week.

The Literary Club meets at the home of Dr. King Monday night.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goodrich, last Saturday evening, a daughter.

Sam Mowery had the little finger of his left hand blown off by a shotgun last week.

Rev. John Rhodes, of Lorain, will occupy the pulpit of the Disciple church Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Hubbard is suffering from a broken bone in the left ankle, resulting from a fall Sunday morning.

The Lorain Herald says that a Wellington man has subscribed $5000 towards the building of a brewery and ice plant at Lorain.

John Christy, of Penfield, died at his home, Sunday afternoon, February 19, aged 77 years. The funeral was held this morning at 10:00 o'clock.

The Carpenter property, located on Bennett street was sold at public sale last Wednesday by F. V. Edwards, administrator, to J. T. Haskell, for $650.

An Oberlin girl sent fifteen cents to a Chicago firm that advertised to send a receipt for softening and whitening the hands. This was the reply: "Soak them well in dish water three times a day while your mother rests."

The old days of putting up a little sign in front of your store and then expecting that to bring the people in, has passed. The man who tells the public what he has to sell through the newspapers, is the man who gets the cream of the business.

Jas. L. Vanaman has been appointed a Deputy Supervisor of Elections for Lorain county to fill the unexpired term of Judge Joel Myers, deceased, of Oberlin. Mr. Vanaman has always been a hard-working democrat and we are glad to see that his work is appreciated.

Do you keep chickens? Then you ought to have the Farm Journal. We give it in clubbing with THE ENTERPRISE, both for the price of our paper only. Pay up all arrearages and a year in advance and the Farm Journal will come five years, and get to you if you are on this planet.

Owen Britton had a successful operation for a cataract on his eye, performed last week Tuesday, Dr. E. G. Rust being the attending physician. Mr. Britton is rapidly recovering, and at present is able to sit up twice a day. As soon as the eye is strong enough, the other eye will be operated upon. He is in the hospital at Cleveland.

John A. Chamberlin, a student at Dennison University, won first prize at the state oratorical contest at Newark, Thursday evening. Mr. Chamberlin is a Lorain county boy, his home being in Grafton. He is a cousin of attorney G. H. Chamberlin of Elyria, and was a pupil of his when he was a school teacher in Grafton. Nearly all the colleges in the state were represented at this contest.

Order of Eastern Star.

On last Friday, Leroy Chapter No. 82, order of Eastern Star, of New London, came to Wellington, and with the aid of Past Grand Patron, W. H. Osborn, of Chardon, instituted a new chapter, to be known as Temple Chapter No. 103.

About twenty came from New London, and were entertained at the Masonic hall where supper was served. The Wellington candidates were then initiated and the new chapter instituted and its officers installed. The worthy matron is Mrs. P. S. Brink, the worthy patron is W. D. Hall, and associate matron, is Mrs. W. D. Hall.

The order consists of Master Masons, their wives, daughters, widows, sisters and mothers. The new chapter has a membership of twenty-eight and will meet twice a month. Much credit is due Leroy chapter for the able manner in which they performed their work.

Notice.

My wife, Mrs. Malinda Lashels having left my home without cause, I wish to notify every one that I will not be responsible for any accounts contracted by her.
O. M. Lashels.

The Good Roads Meeting.

The meeting at the town hall last Friday evening was quite well attended, considering the short publicity which had been given its announcement.

On being called to order Hon. J. T. Haskell was chosen chairman and H. B. Stevick, secretary.

F. D. Warren, one of the turnpike commissioners, stated the object of the meeting. The report of the turnpike commissioners to the county commissioners, as seen on the first page of the Enterprise, was then presented by Mr. N. Huckins of Oberlin. He presented an illustration of the probable amount of tax to be borne by taxpayers by representing that a man whose property is assessed at $2500, would be required to pay only $2.00 per year especially on this account, and claimed that the deterioration of harnesses, wagons, etc., on account of bad roads, would more than offset this amount yearly. Moreover, the farmer who has grain to sell, could load up his wagon in the middle of the year and drive out to market with ease, taking advantage of any advance at any time in prices of grain.

The sentiment of the meeting was almost unanimous to ask the County Commissioners not to delay the vote on the subject by the people of the county. The only opposition developed seemed to be from Huntington, Jasper West and C. B. Griggs being opposed to the good roads movement, deeming it in the nature of an expensive luxury at this time.

A delegation will doubtless go from here to Elyria today, to interview the commissioners on the subject, and urge upon them the necessity of submitting the matter to a vote of the people at the spring election.

The following gentlemen made short speeches during the evening: F. W. Bennett, O. P. Chapman, E. F. Webster, I. L. Comstock, E. C. Branson and Dr. J. W. Houghton, in favor of the movement and by the two previously named gentlemen from Huntington in opposition, one of whom intimated that this was a scheme of bicycle riders than any out-cry from the farmers.

Band Notes.

Some of our quarantined friends found out Monday night that they were not altogether forgotten. The band remembered Charles Linder, Marshal Whitehead and Clara Fisher in several well played selections in front of their respective homes. There were ten of the boys out, several of the members, including leader Hall, were unable to join them.

Both the band and their hearers will miss Mr. Arner's baritone; however he will play at the Saturday evening concert, when in town. For the coming summer the band will consist of the following members:

W. D. Hall, E flat cornet, leader; Frank Furr, solo cornet; Ralph Dimock, cornet; Chas. Myers, cornet; Clarence Hall, E flat clarinet; Horace Wall, B flat clarinet; Charles Linder, solo alto; Warren Fisher, 1st alto; Allyn Witbeck, 3rd alto; Charles Arner, baritone; Henry Converse, 1st tenor; Eugene Cushion, 2nd tenor; Chauncey Fowles, bass; Clarence Wall, bass; Frank Wideman, small drum; Boone Scripture, bass drum.

Tribe of Ben Hur.

The installation ceremonies incident to inducting the new officers for 1899 into office were performed at Grand Army hall one evening last week. The beautiful ritual founded on that peerless book, "Ben Hur," by Gen. Lew Wallace, was neatly carried out by the retiring past chief, R. T. Spicer. The members of the court were highly pleased with the neat and orderly manner in which the ceremonies were conducted.

The following were the officers installed: Chief, A. G. Wall; Teacher, Mrs. Kate Ream; K. of T., Mrs. Mabel Howk; Guide, Geo. E. Howk; K. of O. G., Alpheus Howk; Ben-Hur, R. T. Spicer; Master of Ceremonies, C. Willard; Judge, Grove D. Howk; Scribe, B. Vanator; Captain, L. T. Myers; K. of I. G. Mrs. M. Crabtree; Mother-of-Hur, Mrs. L. Willard; Rabbi Joseph, J. Binchower.

Richardson's Garment-Cutting and Dress-Making School.

We have decided to organize and teach a school in this city where ladies, both old and young, can learn to cut, fit and make any garment worn by the family. We are prepared to teach you this valuable trade as it should be taught; our teachers are all expert dressmakers; the system is the same as used by all the tailors; actual measure. The fashions are published, giving complete instructions and diagrams for drafting every garment worn by ladies, gentlemen and children. We will make you a first-class ladies' tailor. The trade will be valuable to you as long as you live. Call at the school and see the system.
School opens Wednesday, Feb. 8.

Mrs. Parish spent Sunday in town with Mrs. F. A. Chapman.

Mrs. E. Cook of Spencer, is visiting friends and relatives in town.

Mrs. S. K. Landon is the guest of Miss Edith Dickson, in Oberlin.

Miss May Haskell is in Chicago, the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. B. Vorce.

Miss Lena Eymann, of Norwalk, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Tissot last week.

Mrs. J. A. Murray and Miss Lillian Murray are visiting relatives in Cleveland.

Dr. M. H. Mills, of Champaign, Ill., was in town a few days visiting his family.

Miss Mabel Leonard, of St. Paul, Minn., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. A. Chapman.

Mrs. D. F. Wideman was called to Medina, on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. D. Crocker.

Miss Susie Root and Miss Jennie Hurlbrans are in Medina attending the wedding of Geo. Hurelebens.

Edward Stroup, of Oberlin Conservatory of Music, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. French, over Sunday.

Harry Lang arrived in town Monday evening from Atlanta, Ga., and will spend a couple of weeks with his uncle, P. S. Wright.

J. F. McDowell, of Boston, Mass., is in town looking after a car load of carriage horses. Mrs. McDowell is with him and are guests at the Hotel De Foote.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Severcool, of Risley, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Stuart, of Spencer, were recent guests at the Richardson Garment Cutting School.

Mr. Andrew Scoville, of Cleveland, spent a few days last week with Mr. T. Metzger. Mr. Scoville is a retired engineer of the Cleveland Fire Department.

T. S. Knapp left yesterday for Oberlin to attend the Baptist Ministers and Laymen's Conference. He will also attend the Northern Ohio B. Y. P. U. rally, in Cleveland.

Miss Amy Lyon, of Dallas, Texas, was the guest of friends in town the first of the week. Miss Lyon was a teacher in our schools for a short time, some six or seven years ago.

Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Barnes have gone to Lorain. Rev. Barnes will preach in the Disciple church at that place during the continuance of revival services which are now in progress.

Supt. R. H. Kinnison left last night for Columbus, to attend the session of the National Superintendents Association. It is estimated that at least 1000 teachers from various states will be present.

Fremont Ambrose will return to Confluence, W. Va., tomorrow. His brother, J. G. Ambrose left yesterday for Denison, Texas, stopping at Toledo, and Indianapolis, where he will look after the interests of the Postal Telegraph Co.

Mr. Edward West has been confined to his home most of the time for the past two or three weeks with rheumatism in his left arm and hand. His hand has troubled him considerably, but is now improving and the chances are that it will come out all right in the end.

Miss Jennie Bowman returned home last week after a year and a half spent in Dayton, Cincinnati and Birmingham, Ala. Miss Sarah Bowman is with her sister, Mrs. Black, in Birmingham, and the cold there was very destructive of everything injured by freezing, and very uncomfortable for those who in ordinary winters are abundantly provided to guard against cold.

Auction Sale.

On Tuesday, February 23, 1899, beginning at 10 a. m., we will sell at public auction on our farm situated one mile west of the Beckley cheese factory in Rochester township, the following property:

Seventeen head of choice grade Holstein dairy cows, 5 yearlings, 4 work horses, 1 Norman colt coming three years old, 1 Norman colt coming two years old, and one Norman colt coming a year old. Also 14 acres of growing wheat, 30 bushels of timothy seed, 100 bushels of corn, 200 bushels of oats, 1 brood sow, 5 pigs, etc.

This will be the best dairy sold in this neighborhood this season, and is the result of ten years of careful breeding and selection. The sale is made necessary by the death of Mr. Alonzo Hall's wife, compelling him to dissolve the partnership. Terms will be announced on the day of the sale.

HALL, WRAN & HERR.

We will open our line of Spring

Embroideries ...and Laces

This stock has never before been so complete. This is to be a great wash goods season, and Laces all over. Edges and Insertions will be especially desirable for trimmings. If you are in need of anything in this line be sure and see them.

We are also showing new things in

Muslin Underwear...

Ginghams are to be very popular this year and we are showing our first invoice this week. Many of the choicest pattern are shown early in the season, and we invite your attention now when we are sure to please you.

FIGURES WON'T LIE

is an old saying. As to its truthfulness let us examine. If a suit of clothes is marked $4.38, then on account of fire, water or any other dire calamity advanced to $5.48 and then reduced to $4.77, what do you call it?

Some will say, "Dot vos peesiness". Then we will still have to admit that figures won't lie, "und zay it vos only peesness."

My Friends

Are you aware there is a clothing man in Wellington who has done business at the old stand for fifteen years, furnishing you clothing at lower prices than any competitor in the county, who has never willfully misrepresented his goods or jockeyed with the prices. When he makes a special sale his discounts are from regular, not from inflated prices. Such a man is Goodrich, and is he not worthy of your patronage? His efforts in the past have been for your interest, in the future they will increase in the same cause, and although we handle the

Crouse & Brandegee Clothing

which is superior to any other make, we shall undersell any and all competition.

We have no room here for prices, but you will hear from us soon, and the earth will tremble.

With best fortune and good cheer to all

E. E. GOODRICH

Paint Don'ts....

Don't buy cheap materials: it is a waste of money.

Don't have painting done in freezing weather.

Don't commence painting unless the surface is perfectly dry.
